black frog # 34

BLACK FROG is a Diplomacy Zine that emphasizes that Postal Diplomacy is fun to play! The publisher is the "occupant" at 25711 North Vista Fairways Drive, Valencia, CA 91355. Telephone (805) 259-2811.

Effective now, subscriptions to BF are 50¢ per issue with a minimum sub for ten issues (= $5.00).

Diplomacy is a multi-player war game invented by Allan B. Calhamer and owned by Avalon Hill Company. There are no immediate openings at present.

I just read recently that Black Frog would be stopping publication at issue #24--but here we are at issue #34 already. As I indicated in issue #31, I am accepting Jane Proskin's "Peek" as issue #32. As for issue #33 well you all have gotten it. If you are one of the ones who never did figure out what issue #24 was well, you will probably never figure out issue #33 either.

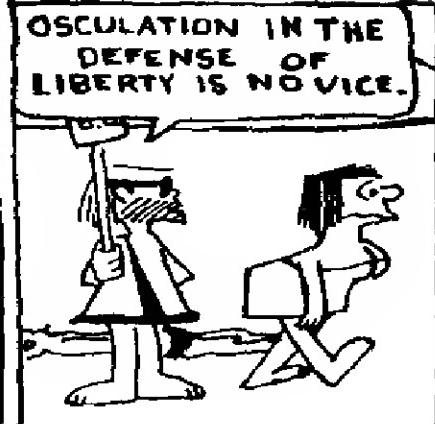

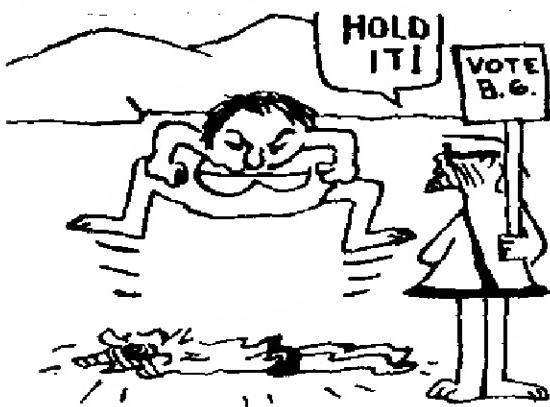

GOOD NEWS for me. The ESG strike at Lockheed has ended and I went back to work on Monday the 19th. I was out ten weeks. We got very little as a result of ten weeks effort and did not get the COLA (cost of living allowance) provision that we were striking for. Something that I might add that all other employees at Lockheed have. The strike effort was ultimately broken by the Southern California Aircraft Builders (best known by their abbreviation: SCABs) who crossed the picket line and went back in to work. After the end of the ninth week--52% had become scabs although there were only about 20% at first. Now that we are all back in, there is considerable friction and hard-feelings between the strikers and scabs. It will be a very long time before this situation ends.

I am extremely busy and pressed at work now and will be until after the middle of February. I have two very important IRAD reports to finish up. They were initially scheduled to be completed before December 19th, but this has been extended until February 15th now. As a result I will be able to spend very little time with Black Frog or with any of my Diplomacy games during the next month. I hope that everybody will understand. As a result, this issue will be a bit skimpy with very little besides the actual game results. As I am writing this, there is a possibility that I may break my record and not get this in the mail on the day following the deadline.

Perl !..

Dave Perlmutter is leaving the postal hobby. The little cartoon above is my way of giving him a final tribute. For those of you not familiar with Dave's subzine in Brutus Bulletin that was entitled:

"EXTRAVAGANT IN THE DEFENSE OF LIBERTY "
" OSCULATION

the humor in this may not be apparent. A special citation should be given to Dave Carter, Gary Carson and Kelly Tilley for so very successfully 'osculating' Dave out of 1980HR.

ORCCON

Orcccon (the Orange County gaming convention) was held January 16 through 18th in Anaheim. Your editor took first place in the 42 player Diplomacy tournament without winning a game. There is no space in this issue to give all the gory details, so I will relay them next time.

Dave Grabar, Ron Brown, Dan Kuszynski, Bill Schiwartz, Matt McKibbin, Jay Shufeldt, Mike Hartman, Jennifer King, Dave Barker, Jerry Jones, Eric Verheiden, Scott Marley, and Rod Walker all stayed home when they heard I would be there.

FROG KILLER-WORLD: I will be travelling back to MIT for the last (thank God!) term of my Masters degree. Since I will be driving. I will be forced incomunicado for about a week. My last day here in California will be Friday 23 January. I will be at MIT by Monday 02 February. My address there will be:

Allan K. Wells
550 Memorial Drive 2E3
Cambridge, MA 02139

I will make a special effort to find the moves out from Jack and get letters off to all before I move (although I don't guarantee it). Send all correspondence to the above address starting in W'01 and I will reply as soon as I get there. //Usually when a Russian player gets 8 supply centers in 1901, the others stop writing!//

FROG KILLER-WORLD: Does anyone want to trade me for Dave Pilant address labels? I will trade at the following rates: Tom Mainardi 1/1; Bernard Sampson 2/1; Bob Arnatt 2/1; Ron Brown 3/1; Rob Olsen 3/1; Jack Masters 3/1. //Write to Michaleki, maybe he will show Pilant how to use the address labels; in the meantime, how would you like to trade phone bills with Dave Pilant?//

LONDON-PARIS: In case you haven't heard, I'm the type of player who takes a 1901 stab very hard. Seeing that you've allied with Germany and Russia against me, I've decided to suicide out against you. Or, in other words, I'm going to try and take you with me. Nothing personal, just an object lesson for all concerned.

FROG KILLER-JANE PROSKIN (Wherever you are): I really do believe you exist. As to your note, show up any time. But, one thing bothers me, how can anyone be as cute as you and have hand-writing identical to Black Jack? Did you retouch those pictures 'just a bit'? //For a while, Jane and I were real close--but I didn't write any notes for her - RJ//

BERLIN: I see Lennon is dead -- well one down and three to go!

FROG KILLER-BLACK JACK: So I'm on the 'honor roll', eh? And you couldn't even spell my name right? If you can't spell Alien, just call me Frog Killer.

TRIESTE-BLACK JACK: But, Jack, I'm not in Tyrolia! What on earth are you talking about? //Take it up with Gary Coughlan, I'm just puppeting to him.//

AUSTRIA-BLACK JACK: Here's my entry in the 'Guess the meaning of Black Frog' contest. This is really wild, but it could have something to do with a paper airplanes called the Black Frog? I don't know where I got such a crazy idea. Actually I thought of it months ago, but I never got around to writing to you about it. Incidentally, where is my prize? //Sorry, I can't talk about prizes while you're still in Tyrolia.//

GERMANY to ENGLAND: I hope that this doesn't hurt your chances of playing in the all-star 'Fifth Horseman' game. Don't give up now though.

The day I left St. Paul to come to California it was -30° with the wind-chill factor -70°. The battery on the U-Haul truck I was bringing my stuff out in froze solid. I had to take the battery out, bring it in and heat it in the oven and then put it back in to get started. I'll stay where I am in the winter, but come up and visit you someday in the summer.//

PARIS to LONDON: When Englishman Alan Minter lost his championship fight (and my ten dollars) to Larry Hagman, I vowed that I'd get even someday. So that's why I jumped on your back. Big-hearted I'm not.

PARIS: Who is it that says France does not like England? The French people really do like England. In fact, the French like England so much that we have decided to make England our home, permanently.

NOTE: Are all Auetriane backwards?

POPE to ROW: Blessed are those who find the movee!

SWITZERLAND: Reliable high level official sources in the Scandinavian country of islands report that an invitation has been extended to the Czar of all Ruseiane to assist in the stabilization of its economy. No response from St. Petersburg as yet. -- Reuters, October 1905.

LIVERPOOL: This is an unlikely dateline for England, but the only center I may have by now. It all depends on how the past seasons negotiations went. I sent letters to each player last season, seeking an alliance to turn the game in my favour. I have listed the players, their response to my letter, and my reply. Can you match the player with the correspondence?

The Players:

- (1) Dan Kuszynski
- (2) Mark Lew
- (3) Jeff Albrecht
- (4) Jennifer King
- (5) Wietze de Vries
- (6) Bill Hart.

Their Response:

- (a) I am willing to lend you full support--but only if you agree to meet me in San Bernardino to "diecuse strategy". Be sure you bring the chaine and whip or the deal is off.
- (b) So, you are a nephew of Kenneth Taylor! I am actually an Iranian. My name is actually Dan Ruholla Kus-----Ayatollah. I don't like Kenneth Taylor--as you will find out.
- (c) Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha!
- (d) If you can just hold out until 1919, I can probably get an army over to help you.
- (e) Help you? Sure, I will help you. But first, I have to make sure you can't double cross me. All you have to do is dieband two fleets, and then I will give you all the help you need.
- (f) I hate Italians.

My Reply:

- (i) I know Diplomacy is just for fun, but I want to win the trophy derby. Therefore, I agree to your terms. Please do not bring the Lithuanian midgets.
- (ii) Italian? Me? I am more Irish than Italian. Anyway, it is the Iraniane you really have to watch out for.
- (iii) You are Iranian! What a coincidence--I am actually more Iranian than Italian. And Uncle Ken and I never got along anyhow.
- (iv) Is that a yes?
- (v) Could you possibly form an alliance with Germany instead of me?
- (vi) By 1919 I can probably get an army over to 'help' you. Maybe I should make it five or six armies and a couple of fleets too. You have no idea how much I want to help you.

LIVERPOOL Again: Ever since Peter Falk expressed a desire to return to television as the popular Lieutenant Columbo, I have received numerous letters seeking confirmation of the rumour that the title character was actually based on myself. Unfortunately, all I can say is "talk to my agent", due to the possibility of a breach of contract suit by NHC. Let me say that, neither I, my wife Kate (a pretty volunteer reporter on a small newspaper in Southern California), or our pet Bassett Hound have any knowledge of a link between Lieutenant Columbo or Steve Colombo. Ahhh ... just one last thing. We don't even smoke the same brand of cigar. To lay all doubts to rest, I have sent along a picture of myself, taken at a recent Diplomacy tournament (the well known Diplock III) in Sault Ste. Marie. That is me on the left. (Yes, Diplomacy certainly is fun (especially the little known 'Lady Wrestler' variant)).

LIVERPOOL to VALENCIA: Is Black Jack prejudiced against the mentally handicapped? I see no other explanation to explain why the highest percentile players get a Trophy Derby game, but the lowest percentile players get nothing. I would like to see all other low percentile players write requesting a 'especial' game for those 'special' players. Think of it as a 'special' Olympics, only in Diplomacy. How about it Black Jack?

VALENCIA to LIVERPOOL: I have been giving thought to a special game along a similar vein for some time. Something may be in the works.

Additional notes on 1980HS "Famine"

The spring 1903 NMR for Italy was in error. His orders were actually on hand and were misplaced by the GM. A correction was sent out individually to all the players in the game. This note is for the benefit of non-Famine-players who may be following the game. The Spring 1903 orders for Italy were:

Italy (de Vries) A TYR-Boh; A TUN runs on the beaches; F AEG (s) F Eas-Smy; F EAS-Smy.

This forces one change in the Russian orders as follows:

Russia (King) A Gal-Boh/dislodged and must retreat War, Sil or OTB.

The Summer 1903 retreat for Russia was

A Gal retreat to WAR

One complaint was voiced that no time was given for negotiations before the Russian retreat. Yes, that is true but in the standard Diplomacy rules no Diplomacy ever precedes retreats, builds or removals. This is not quite practical in postal games because negotiations cannot be entirely stopped. However in all cases where I split seasons I will provide just enough time to ensure that you can get the zine and get your orders back in. I cannot prevent negotiation, but you will probably have to do it over the phone.

One player called for an extension of the season because of my error creating a problem in negotiation after the Russian retreat. If two or more players had asked for an extension I might have considered it, but I don't want to slow a game down any more than is absolutely necessary. The Russian retreat to WAR was quite predictable and in any case, conditional rules could have been used.
